SSB (Services Selection Board) Interview

The SSB Interview is the final hurdle for becoming an officer, after clearing NDA, CDS, or AFCAT written exams. It is a 5-day comprehensive assessment at Services Selection Boards (SSB) across India.

Major Components:

- OIR Officer Intelligence Rating, consists of verbal and non-verbal reasoning.
- PPDT: Picture Perception & Discussion Test (story writing and narration).
- Psychological Tests: Series of written tests that evaluate thought process, attitude, and personality.
- GTO Tasks: Group Testing Officer tasks – group discussions, group planning exercise, outdoor physical tasks, command tasks, group obstacle race.
- Personal Interview: Assess communication, confidence, social skills, decision-making.
- Conference: All assessors confer and make recommendations on final selection.

Why it is tough:

SSB checks for "Officer Like Qualities" (OLQs) - leadership, teamwork, determination, and integrity. Only a small fraction of candidates are finally recommended.

These are direct entries in the Indian Armed Forces that candidates can apply for.
